

PSWD Senior High Winter Camp Camp SinfUUI

Adult Co-Deans: Eric Rossloff and Kathe Larick
Youth Co-Deans: Olivia Calvi and Cayenne Newman

Sunday, December 27, 2015 - Friday, January 1, 2016

Camp SinfUUI is all about exploring the gray areas between good and bad. What defines these ideas to you? What defines these ideas to your community? Are "good and bad" real concepts, or do their meanings change from person to person? Workshops and worships are going to knock the socks off the feet of the campers, and everyone will be on their toes during the all-camp activities.

Although the theme sounds a tad bit scandalous, not to worry, our mischievous selves will be kept in check. Camp de Benneville Pines is the perfect place to challenge societal and social norms.

The PSWD Camping Ministries Team creates and oversees eight seasonal camps throughout the year. The Team's mission is to develop and support safe, quality camp experiences for children, youth, and adults within the context of Unitarian Universalist principles and values. Program staff are volunteers recruited from congregations throughout the district. Counselors are adults and youth who have been trained in the district's CIT program.

Camp de Benneville Pines is located at 6,800 feet in the San Bernardino National Forest, approximately 45 minutes from Redlands, CA. Within walking distance of Jenks Lake in a forest of towering cedars, pines and oaks, De Benneville is the perfect location for enjoying the natural beauty of the forest and mountains.

Accommodations include winterized, heated cabins; bedrooms with shared baths; hot running water in all bathrooms; meeting rooms for workshops; and delicious, homestyle meals served in the lodge. Vegetarian and vegan options are available if requested with registration.
