

MICHELE OHANESIAN

As a commissioned portrait artist since the age of 17, Michele has studied and painted hundreds of portraits. A career built in the gallery industry, she has spent the last few years as a fulltime artist, teaching has proven to be a true love. Michele has built a loyal following of students, both children and adults. Michele is an award winning artist and has exhibited her figurative and portrait work in Art Spectrum Indian Wells, New York and Miami.

PORTRAITS

Portraits and Figures can be some of the most intimidating subject matter. This class will ease that stress and give you more confidence in all of your future artwork. Beyond structure and technique, Michele will show you ways to spot and solve common issues at every step in the process.