Introduction to Encaustic Monotype Prints

Do you love being surprised by Art? Then you'll love encaustic printmaking! Lin will introduce you to a versatile form of painting that dates back to the ancient Greeks and Romans. You'll learn how to combine melted bees wax, pigments, found objects and heat to imprint realistic or abstract patterns onto paper with amazing results. Your finished creations will be suitable for hanging, for making greeting cards or to use to embellish collage.
