Whether you take the scenic route via Highway 1 (Pacific Coast Highway), fly into the San Luis Obispo airport or arrive via train from southern California, the trip to San Luis Obispo can be a memorable experience in itself, and getting here is part of the fun! Once you've arrived, it's easy to travel around the city using San Luis Obispo transportation including Uber, car rentals, bike rentals or even, the iconic trolley to Downtown SLO. Be sure to check out Car Free SLO, a local program that provides tools to visitors so they can travel to and around SLO without a car.

Driving Directions

Use your favorite “maps” app for finding your best route to the church. Program in the above address and let the adventure begin.

Flying Information

You will want to fly into San Luis Obispo County Regional Airport (SBP). Three passenger airlines serve the airport with nonstop flights to eight cities: Dallas-Fort Worth, Denver, Los Angeles, Phoenix, Portland, San Diego, San Francisco and Seattle. Alaska Airlines, American Airlines and United Airlines service this airport.

Train Information

The train to San Luis Obispo offers a convenient and stress-free travel experience with stunning views of the Pacific Coast! The Amtrak Station in San Luis Obispo offers daily train service by the Coast Starlight and Pacific Surfliner. As an added bonus, the San Luis Obispo train station is within walking distance of downtown.

Bus Information

Kick back and relax while cruising by bus to San Luis Obispo. Greyhound's bus schedules take you right into San Luis Obispo County from Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Joaquin Valley and more. Additionally, Amtrak California also offers bus routes.
