

OIL PASTELS - Instructor Nancy Jo Klaphaak
These beautiful color sticks will impress you with their ease of use and immediacy.

Learn six basic techniques and then use them to create your own Impressionistic Landscape, Seascape, Floral or Abstract.

Find out why oil pastels are not just for kids; but rather, why they are an artist’s mainstay for travel, planning, practice and full-on creation of masterpieces.

This fun workshop will help you get the feel for pastels and help create something interesting.

All Materials will be provided.

Nancy Jo has both a BA in Drawing and Painting from Skidmore College and a Masters in Painting from Stanford.

She spent her junior year studying at La Universidad de las Americas in Puebla, Mexico. Later, she took post graduate Illustration classes at the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena.

As a lover of the “shared art experience” she consistently takes workshops from well-known artists from around the world.

Her artwork has earned numerous awards and she is a member of both local and international art organizations.
