On the Road of Life What a long strange trip it's been.

Jerry Garcia had it right. We've wandered, we've pursued. We know about the road not taken, getting lost, then finding the high road. Pot holes, blown gaskets, high-octane fuel and pedal to the metal. We've handled roadmaps, navigated crossroads, and reached milestones. It's quite a trip.

So let's take a breath, pull over to the rest area, and spend a couple of days in the beautiful mountains with our brothers, where we can reflect and consider where we've been and where we're headed now. The weekend will include workshops, singing, drumming, silence, ritual, outdoor activities, and early morning hikes in the mist (if you like). There'll be time to reflect on your journey and share with other men in your own group of five, where you'll find kindred spirits and a safe place to talk. There'll be laughter, great food and just spending quality time away, to renew.

Join us on this journey to redefine your path, leaving behind anything holding you back and making new decisions to shape your future—'cause we've miles to go.
